CRAGE WANDERERS-PRETTY ADELAIDS NEIL-SON, ETC.

Special to the Star.

Sr. Louis, Dec. 27.—Several Osage Indians, shivering in their thin red blankets, and headed by the old Chief Nohaskashe, were quartered at the sup-house last night. They had been deserted by their manager, a showmon, and had walked all the way from La Salle, Ill. T e Mayor will probably send them to their nation.

Fred. Schwab, Manager of Adelaide Neilson, is here, and he says the pretty actress is positively going to marry an Englishman of high estate, and quit the stage.

The crews of the steamers Durfee and Annie have arrived here, and report the place in this or any other country, Durfee logged with both sides drooping, Rowell's best record will probably be beatwhile the Annie lies alongside aground, unable to help herself or the Durfee. There is little hope of saving either. The river is low and full of thick ice.

It is understood that President Hayes It is inderstood that President Hayes favors the election of Stanley Matthews to the U. S. Senate, and that in the event of his failure to secure the seat made vacant by the expiration of Thurman's term, he (Matthews) will be tendered the English Mission, which is to be held open until the Ohio Legislature has a constant. Ohio Legislature has chosen a Senator. The friends of Gen. Garfield are much exercised at this action of President Hayes, in view of the fact that Gen, Garfield, at the request of the President, waived his claims in lavor of Matthews to fill Senator Sherman's unexpired term three years ago. Gen. Gar-field has left for Ohio.

STOCKYARDS STRIKE.

It is Practically Ended in Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 27.—Nearly one hundred of the eight hundred men who went to work for Fowler Br s. at the Stock Yards withdrew from the Union. All the others signed agreements not to join the Union. Seven hundred men who signed the ironciad agreement for Armour & Co. will probably go to work Monday. Some of the city militin are reported to have been at their quarters yesterday waiting ostensibly to quarters yesterday waiting ostensibly to quell any disturbance at the Stock Yards, but it is said to put in the time for which they might draw pay, many of them being without legitimate employment at this season of the year. They fell in last night to draw overcoats.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.-The wenther to-day is mild and beautiful, and sleighing is good. The strike is practically ended at the Stock-yards. The Chicago Packing and Provi-sion Company, which generally hires from two to three thousand men, ordered its buyers out this morning, but as offerings are light they will only take a limited number.

A Terrible Tragedy in Tennessee.

Fatal Affray Between Two Illinois Farmers.

A Mighty Mean Man to Be Hanged in Arkansas.

Special to the Star.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., Dec. 27.-Thomas Edmunds, who was convicted of one of the most horrible murders that stain the recrds of crime, was yesterday sentenced at Ozark to be hanged, the day of his execution being fixed for February 27th, 1880.

In 1877 Edmunds left Kentucky with Julia Asesbrook, locating in Washington County, this State. His family had been left behind. The following year he, Julia and their child started for Johnson County. They were to take a boat at Spratt's Landing, on the Arkansas River, reaching there August 17th. Then they were missed, and on the 22d Edmunds turned up at his old Kentucky home. He stated to his friends that Julia and the child had died at Poplar Bluff, Missouri. A few months afterwards human bones were found on the edge of the river, near Spratt's Landing. and the clothing of the missing woman and child found on the bank. Owing to a pe culiar tooth the ghastly skull was identified as that of Miss Asesbrook, and it is for this horrible double murder that Edmunds is to

"We say with every number of St. Nicholas, this is the best yet; nothing more can be hoped for. But when its successor comes we only echo the same remark.—[Bosros TRAVELLER, Dec., 1879.

The issues of St. Nicholas since the en-the issues of St. Micholas ance the enlargement have been of great beauty, yet the publishers believe that the January (New Year's) number will not fall behind them in fullness of text and richness of illustration. The editions of the Dec. (Christmas) number have reached $5,000 copies.

The Chicago Advance says of St. Nicu-OLAS: It Leads the World in Children's Magazines, And the Pittsburg Telegraph: "It is the finest specimen of a children's magazine extant. In England, as in America, it is acknowledged to be supreme. It is without a peer in the English language, both in its literature and illustrations."

The New Year's number has a charming frontispiece by Jassiz Cuaris, and opens author of "That Lass o' Lowrie's." MARY HALLOCK FOOTE, FRANK R. STOCKTON, CHAS. BARNARD and PAUL HAYNE are among the contributors, with IVAN PRANISHNICKOFF, DIELMAN, TABER and others as illustrators. Gerome's famous painting of "The Relay in the Desert" is reproduced, while a short operetta of "The Sleeping Princess," "Strange Music" and "Snowball Warfare," with continuations of the bright serials by Miss ALCOTT and W. O. STODDARD, are among the contents.

ALFRED TENNYSON contributes to Sr. Nicholas two child songs with music, which will be published in Rebruary.
